Illinois Banker is the official publication of the Illinois Bankers Association, which represents state and national banks, savings banks, and savings and loan associations in one of the nation's largest bank markets. Illinois is home to more than 640 banks and savings institutions, with close to 4,000 branches.

Each issue of Illinois Banker is read by CEOs, presidents, directors and senior managers — the people who make the buying decisions for the full range of products and services designed to help their banks remain competitive.

Illinois Banker addresses the latest news, developments and trends in the banking industry, and provides current information about the economy, regulatory and legal issues, technology, and people in the news.

Founded nearly a century ago, Illinois Banker continues to build on its tradition and reputation as the state's leading banking publication.

With a circulation of 3,000, Illinois Banker represents a targeted — and economical — marketing opportunity to reach the important Illinois banking community.
