

Illinois Banks paid more than
$1 billion in taxes last year.

Credit Unions paid zero.
All should pay their fair share.

Illinois Banks paid over
$1 billion in taxes last year.

Credit Unions paid zero.
Isn't it time for a change?

Illinois families paid over
$18 billion in taxes last year.

Credit Unions paid zero.
Isn't it time for a change?

You pay income taxes,
why don't credit unions?

Families pay their fair share of income taxes, and credit unions pay ZERO?

Ask your legislator why.

I didn't know that credit unions
don't pay income taxes!

Did you?

Ask your legislator why.
